Lebanon Jan. 30th 1855.—

Dear Sir,

Your note of the 15.th Ult. was duly recd. Since then I have made considerable enquiry of Elderly people in this vicinity, and also examined the Church and Town records. Tho, not able to answer all your questions, I send the result of my labors—

From the town records, I find that the Rev. John Robinson of Duxbury. Plymouth Co. Mass. bought land of Jonathan Trumbull, lying in Lebanon 12. th. May 1737 - Consideration 1600. £ — in 1740. bot other lands of Jona Trumble for 1500. £.

Revd John Robinson deeded to his son John Robinson 107. Acres of land in Lebanon 11. April 1743. Consideration "love and affection."

Ichabod Robinson sold 96. acres of land to Jonathan Trumble Sept 23, 1746 And purchased of Trumble Nov. 20. 1746. a lot which I suppose to be the homestead, now owned by me— Consideration 2200. £ —

~~From~~ To Mrs. E. S. Robinson, widow of your Uncle John Robinson who lives in the house occupied by your Uncle at his decease, who tho, more than eighty years of age is a very worthy and intelligent old lady. I am indebted for the following

Married Jan. 31. 1705. John Robinson of Duxbury to Hannah Wiswall

Ichabod married Mary Hyde May 25. 1749. who died July 1, 1750. aged 19. years nearly. — 16. January 1752. married Lydia Brown, who died August 23. —73. — Mary R. born 28. Dec. — 55— died 11. Oct. 1780 after 2½ years great distress by starving throat grew up—died 2d May 1832, Rev. John Robinson in a fit"

From the Church records I find, Jonathan Trumble was was admitted to full communion Dec 30. 1730. - and Faith Trumble March 11. 1739.

The children of Ichabod Robinson and Lydia his last wife were baptized as follows. Joseph Nov. 6. 1752. William 18. Aug. - 54. - Mary Jan. 4. - 56 - Lydia 26. Oct - 57 - John 27. April 1760. and in the burying ground I find a small stone with this inscription Earnest, son of Ichabod and Lydia Robinson Born 11. Dec 1763. and died of Canker Jan. 13, 1765. This I think comprises all the family of Ichabod -

The Stone at the grave of Rev. John Robinson of Duxbury is settled into the earth (and now frozen down) and so overgrown with moss - I could not well make out the inscription

I did not find the grave of Mary, unless it be by a stone nearly covered with earth and now frozen in -

Lydia has a Monument on which is the following inscription.

In Memory of Lydia Robinson who died April 23, 1825.

" Our friends lamented are not dead,
Tho dark to us the road they tread
All soon must follow to the shore
Where they have only gone before "

Nabby Robinson wife of Rev. John R. died Dec 29. 1816.

From a Memorandum furnished by Mrs. Robinson I find John born April 16, 1715, 2d. Son Samuel, July 10. 1717. these must be sons of the first John who emigrated from Duxbury -

I have been unable to learn any thing of your father's residence at Lebanon after he left College -

I interested myself some years since to find the connecting link between your family and the Pilgrim John Robinson, but never was able to make it clear. tho I found nothing to the contrary -

I saw Mrs. Robinson to day - says she remembers you well and wishes to be kindly remembered to you - and she would be happy to reply to any enquiries you may be pleased to make of her - She is very intelligent and retains her faculties remarkably well -

You have a young gentleman in the Seminary, Henry Harris Jessup, a very dear friend of mine - will you be so kind as to remember me affectionately to him -

With considerations of Respect and Esteem
I am truly yours
Learned Hebard
